

What the Friends do

The Friends provide support to the Fusilier Museum Warwick by:

- Safeguarding the artefacts and collections linked to the history of the Royal Warwickshire Regiment and its successor, The Royal Regiment of Fusiliers.
- Promoting the stories of those who have served and serve today.
- Providing context for current and future generations.

How Friends and non-members can support us

For those interested in supporting the museum's work, there are several ways to get involved:

- Volunteer at the museum. We have several roles in areas such as Visitor Reception, Collections, Learning and Engagement, and Events. See the Support Us section of our website for more details.
- Support fundraising initiatives such as museum stalls at public festivals, or markets and facilitation at museum events.
- Promote the museum through your own networks both in person or social media.
